

THE FOURTH BATTLE OF THE WAR GAMES

We were walking through the hallway of the locker room preparing to fight the Twilight team in the finals of the war games but when we were about to leave for the stadium Zant came to us and said "There is no way that you can win tonight and I have the upper hand." Then I replied "The only way your going to win is if we forfeit and that is definitely not gonna happen." Then he replied "Don't think I haven't been waiting for this day." And then he walked away. Then I said "What does he mean by that?" Then we began to walk to the stadium but then my new girlfriend Lyndis came up and said "Good luck tonight guys" and then kissed me. Then Ilia (Roy's girlfriend) came up and said the same thing and kissed Roy. Then we walked out to the stadium and saw Zant, Midna (who was brainwashed by Zant), Ganon and a Super Poe. Then we heard the announcer yell "FIGHT" and the super Poe charged at us and Roy used his fire and earth powers to make a fire boulder and I used my water and wind powers to fuse with it to make a giant ice-berg and it hit the super Poe and killed it. Then Ganon charged at us and Link chopped his arm off I used my wind powers to catapult him in the air and Roy stabbed him in mid-air and as he was falling I chopped his head off. Then it was just Zant and Midna but then Zelda came into the arena and we were standing there with our jaws dropped and then Zelda pulled out a sword and charged at Roy and shouted "This is for breaking my heart!" and she swung the sword at Roy and got him in the chest and he fell to the ground unconscious, unconscious but still alive. Then I checked on Roy while Link chased Zelda but then Zant trapped Link and performed a spell and suddenly, Link turned evil with grey hair, steel armour, a blue and red mask and 2 steel swords that are twirled to make one very big and very powerful sword. Link has been transformed into a Twilight being. Then I tried to talk to him but then he swung his new sword at me and I ducked and then I heard Zant say "Foolish boy, do you honestly believe that you can heal your former friend. The only way you can save him is if you kill me and my new wife Zelda." And then Zant and Zelda kissed. Then I continued fighting Link but I couldn't get him away from me without hurting him. Then I saw Lyndis jump from her seat and start fighting Zelda and she pulled out her sword and they started fighting. Back and forth and back and forth our swords went on as the sparks flew off our swords as they clashed. Then, suddenly Lyndis knocked Zelda's evil sword and sliced her mid-section and Zelda died. Then while I was fighting the evil reincarnation of Link I saw something fly and hit him and gave me enough time to start fighting Zant and then I saw Roy starting to fight the evil Link. Then I swung my sword at Zant and he blocked then I saw Lyndis running to help fight Zant but then I shouted "Don't come, you'll only get hurt!" Then she ran to the crowd's seats and sat down to watch feeling guilty about leaving Marth to fight Zant on his own. Our swords flew and then after a long time of fighting our swords snapped and so now, we both had no weapon to fight with. Then I saw Zant chanting something and then a new sword appeared out of no-where and he started swinging at me. I ducked the first swing, then I rolled out of the way of the way for the second swing but then he cornered me and held his sword across my neck and said to me "When I kill you will die and you will not be able to kill me and save everyone you love and care about. Even if you did kill me, my body would still join together to form a black heart and then and only then if you stabbed it you would lose all mortality and when your body is killed the same thing will happen to you." Then Lyndis threw her sword to me but before I could catch it Zant stabbed me right in the heart and I fell to the ground. Then Lyndis jumped off the stage to my aid and she grabbed her sword and Roy blew the evil Link away and stabbed Zant from behind and as Zant said, he formed a black heart and then Lyndis started to cry. Then Roy got an idea and pulled out his knife and put it in Marth's dead hands and made him stab the black heart. Then Marth slowly woke up and said "Thank you to Roy." Then fell unconscious. The next time I woke up I was in a hospital and I saw everything was back to normal. Link was himself again, Roy had a broken arm but then I said "I thought I was killed by Zant." But then Lyndis said "You were but Roy made you stab the black heart so you now have slight immortality if you think about it." Then the War Game Owner came up to us and said "congratulations, you have won the war games tournament but you haven't finished fighting yet. You must first fight each other to the death and then the winner will then have the right to fight me to the death." "WHAT THE HELL ARE YOU TALKING ABOUT?" I said even though I knew very well what he was talking about. Then he replied "That's for me to know and you to find out" he said and walked away. Then we sat in our hospital beds confused about the things that just happened and we wondered what will happen when we are forced to fight each other, our best friends to the death.
